INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY

March 8th is International Women's Day! International Women's Day is a global day celebrating the social, economic, cultural, and political achievements of women. The day also marks a call to action for accelerating women's equality. As Little Scholars is run by wonderful women, we take this day to appreciate all the amazing traits they bring to the center, and we recognize the importance of helping to educate the future generation about equality and kindness.

Staff of the Month

Congratulations to our staff of the month, Ashley! Thank you for all your hard work in the Infant room! We appreciate everything you do!

International Menu Day

Friday, March 18th, Amanda will be cooking up some Irish- themed food for lunch and afternoon snack in honour of St. Patrick's Day!

Reminder!!!

Toys from home are to stay at home or in the car. They cannot come into the center. The only exception to this rule is if there has been a request or discussion with the teachers in your child's room for a specific occasion or activity. We understand that this can be stressful for you and your child, especially when they must give something up in the car before dropping off, but personal items can be lost or damaged, and this could make your child even MORE upset than just leaving it for home time. Thank you for your understanding!

March 21st is Down Syndrome awareness day! On this day, we have the chance to share ideas, experiences, knowledge, and important messages about Down Syndrome with the children in the center, and throughout the community. We can empower each other to advocate for inclusion to bring forth positive change!

On March 21st, we encourage everyone to wear mismatch socks! This creative initiative was started in 2013 and according to some advocates, socks were chosen because they are similar in shape to chromosomes. The campaign was later promoted as 'Lots of Socks,' and advocates around the world encourage people to wear colourful, mismatched socks on March 21 to mark the occasion and raise awareness around the disorder.

I'm a Little Leprechaun

Author Unknown-Tune: I'm a Little Teapot

I'm a little leprechaun
Dressed in green,
The tiniest man,
You have ever seen.

If you ever catch me, so it's told,
I'll give you my pot of gold.

Artist's Corner

Our art this month is from Toddler A! The children had so much fun using the dinosaurs to stomp around the paper instead of paint brushes! What a good idea!
