

September 2022 Newsletter

Friday, September 30th is National Truth and Reconciliation Day. On this day, we take the time to recognize and learn the impact of the residential school system on the Indigenous peoples of Canada that lasted over a century. On this day, we encourage every child and educator to wear an orange shirt to encourage the continual healing and education that we want to promote throughout the center and our community. We know that every child matters, and work to create a safe, inclusive space for every child, every day.

All center birthdays will be celebrated on September 30th

Terry Fox Run

On Friday, September 9th, we will be participating in a center-wide Terry Fox Run! All of our classes will join together to walk around the block together! We will be leaving the center at approximately 10 am, so we are asking all children to be here by 9:30 am. If you arrive after we've left, we'll have our route posted on our door so you can come join us along the way!

Grandparent's Day

Sunday, September 11th is Grandparent's Day! We have a few ideas to help celebrate these wonderful people:

- 1) Help your little one make a card or bake a treat for Grandma or Grandpa!
- 2) Take Grandma or Grandpa out for a special lunch or dinner- making it a picnic in the park will be even more fun!
- 3) Perform your favourite songs together! Throw on everyone's favourite songs and dance around the living room together- make sure to keep it as silly as possible!

Kitchen Staff/ Menu Changes

As many of you may know, our wonderful cook Amanda is expecting her first baby later this Fall and we're all excited to meet the newest Little Scholar! However, this means that we'll have to make some changes in the kitchen, as September will be Amanda's last month with us before going on leave. After this, all kitchen duties will be transitioned to the wonderful catering company: Wholesome Kids Catering. We'll miss Amanda dearly, and we look forward to trying a tasty new menu! (Menu's will be posted in each classroom, on our website and updated on your child's daily reports.)
